

Psalm 67 – The Redeemer of the Nations

The light that shines the farthest shines the brightest at home. What does that mean? Do you agree?

In what ways has God blessed you physically and materially? In what ways has He blessed you spiritually? Make a list of each.

We are prone to disconnect God's blessing in our lives with His purpose for our lives. Read the following Scriptures. What do they teach us about God's purposes for blessing His people?

Psalm 67

Genesis 12:1-3; 26:4; 28:14

Ezekiel 36:22-23

Isaiah 49:6

Luke 24:45-47

Matthew 24:3-14

Matthew 28:16-20

Acts 1:6-8

Revelation 7:9-10

How does the overall message of Psalm 67 clash with a culture that is heavily influenced by consumerism?

If God blesses others through us, does that mean He is only using us? How is it good news to be used by God to bless others?

How should the truth of God's sovereignty give us confidence in the Church's mission?

Will you begin to pray like the Psalmist, that God would bless you so that you can be used by Him to bring blessing to nations? What might that look-like in your life? [Praying, Sending, Going?]

How can you begin to pray regularly for specific unreached peoples? Check out Joshuaproject.org for resources and information. Will your family or life group "adopt" A UPG?
